

3,700 B.C.	Evidence of settlement in the area
400 A.D.	St. Ninian brings Christianity to Whithorn & Scotland
565	Columba founded the monastery of Iona
597 - 635	First known Religious Establishment at Kilmun (Graham's Point) by Fintan Munna
700	Occupation at Ardnadam site
795	First Norse invasion of Skye down to Iona
8th century	Slab grave dating from 8th C in Kilmun church yard
Circa 11th C	Burial cists at Graham's Point
1165 -1214	Earl of Mentieth believed to have possession of Cowal
1169	Paisley Abbey established
Late 9th century	Norse raids on the Clyde
10th – 11th C	Stone chapel at Ardnadam
1230-1246	Charter of Duncan son of Ferchar granting to the monks of Paisley the lands, fishings and right of patronage to Kilmun
1263	Battle of Largs
1270	Grant of Duncan confirmed by his son Engus
1294	Charter witnessed by Humfred of Kylmon
1334	Pope Benedict grants the Abbot of Kilmun the privilege of using a mitre and ring.
1363	King David confirms that Mary, Countess of Menteith conveyed Kilmun and adjoining lands to her kinsman Guilleaspic Campbell who was bound to present her with a pair of Paris gloves each year, if asked for.
Late 14th C	Campbells take over Lordship of Cowal, residence at Strathechaig (possibly sited in vicinity of Kilmun House)
1390-1406	King Robert III granted lands in Stron to John Stewart
1440	Death of Archibald or Celestine Campbell, burial at Kilmun
1441	The Pope grants the petition of Sir Duncan Campbell for the erection of the parish church of St.Mund into a Collegiate Church with a provost and seven chaplains.

1442	Sir Duncan endowed the church from various lands.
1445	Sir Duncan created Lord Campbell
1450	King James II confirms above
1448-1452	Provost is Peter Wilstan (Wilson) , a married man with children
1451	Sir Duncan by a deed signed at the collegiate church of St Mund bound in case of his failure to fulfil a grant to the Friars preachers of Glasgow
1452	Charter by Lord lie Campbell (Sir Duncan) witnessed by Master Peter the Provost, Sir Thomas Spens, Sir Duncan Lindesay, Sir Donald M'Aggrade, Sir John Baxter, Sir Duncan Mcmolane, Sir Alexander Dewar and Sir Duncan, son of John Beg, Chaplains of the college kirk of Kilmone.
1453	Death of Lord Duncan Campbell, succeeded by his grandson Colin
1457	Colin created first Earl of Argyll
1465-70	Provost is David Uchtree, notary public
1474	Lands including Kilmone granted by King James III to Sir John Colquhoun of Luse Inveraray created Burgh of Barony
1490	For services to himself and his predecessors, King James IV erected the town of Kilmound with its bounds into a free burgh of barony for ever, the inhabitants to have the full right of buying and selling within the burgh wine, wax, woollen and lined cloth, and whatever merchandise should arrive there. Within the burgh bakers, brewers, butchers, fishmongers, fleshmongers, and workmen of all crafts. All inhabitants to be burgesses and have the power to elect baillies, erect a cross, hold a weekly market every Monday and two yearly fairs, one on St Mund's day (21st October) and one on 3 May.
1493	King James IV confirms Barony of Kilmvn, yielding 24 marks to Archibald Earl of Ergil Death of 1st Earl, inherited by his son Colin, 2nd Earl
1495-1511	Sir John Dewar provost, former rector of Loch Awe
1498	Deed by Gilchrist Lawmond dated at Kilmon
1497	Sir John Colquhoun of Luse sold to Archibald Earl of Ergil various lands including Innerquhapill occupied by "a certain

	procurator with the staff of St Mund called Deowray
1507	Sir John Dewar provost appears in records
1511	King James IV confirmed Barony of Kilmone to Colin Earl of Argyle
1513	Death of Sir Colin Campbell, 2nd Earl at Flodden Field. Succeeded by Colin, 3rd Earl
1522	Sir Archibald Leych provost
1526	King James IV confirmed Barony of Kilmone to Archibald Campbell
1529	Death of Colin 3rd Earl, succeeded by his son Archibald Master Robert Makvicar (or M'Yvicare) provost
1541	Lands and Barony of Kilmwn resigned by Earl Archibald and granted anew by King James V Master Robert Makvicar (or M'Yvicare) provost
1542	Earl Archibald again resigned the same lands which were granted by the king to Archibald his heir reserving liferent to the Earl
1548	Master Robert Makvicar (or M'Yvicare) provost
1557	Master Robert Lawmond provost
1558	Death of Archibald 4th Earl, succeeded by his son Archibald
1560	The Scottish Restoration
1561 -73	John Campbell provost
1566	Charter by Ninian Stewart witnessed at Kilmone John Campbell provost
1573	Death of 5th Earl Archibald succeeded by his brother Colin
1576-1592	Archibald Campbell provost
1580 - 1590	Pont's map shows 'Loch Aint' and the church site
1584	Death of 6th Earl, succeeded by his infant son Archibald
1601	King James VI granted Master Duncan Campbell provostry of Kilmun

1602	Earl Archibald granted same to Master Duncan Campbell of Craignish
1614-1623	Alexander Colville provost
1620-1648	Archibald Campbell of Kilmun served heir in certain lands to his father Archibald provost of Kilmun
1637	Archibald of Kilmun assigned to Lord Lorne the tack of the whole teinds granted to him by Master Duncan Campbell provost of Kilmun
1638	Death of Archibald ,7th Earl This is a possible date for the extension of the burial place at Kilmun.
1646	Lamont raid and murder of Campbells at Kilmun. Tower burned. Campbell revenge resulted in the murder of about 136 of the Lamont family in Dunoon
1661	Death of 8th Earl by execution
1663	Restoration of Earldom of Argyll
1670	Earliest visible gravestone in churchyard
1667	Patronage of Kilmuin included in a new grant of the earldom by King Charles II to Archibald
1672-1696	James Campbell provost
1668	Death of Mary Stewart, wife of 7th Earl
1685	Death of Archibald, 9th Earl by execution
1695	Archibald served heir to his father Archibald in the collegiate church
1703	Death of Archibald, 10th Earl, 1st Duke Minister of Dunoon arranges renovation of the church.
1705	Patrick Campbell of Balcardine provost
1735	Death of Elizabeth Talmash 1st Duchess
1743	Death of John 2nd Duke
1750	Colonel Robert Campbell of Finab provost
1761	Death of Archibald 3rd Duke (Ilay)

1770	Death of John 4th Duke
1770-1834	General Alexander Campbell of Monzie provost.
1775	Fearful storm in August destroying crops and sweeping away all the bridges in the area
1776	Great floods during March sweep away a cottage killing a mother and child
1789	Sketches of the church made by the minister John Melvil
1791	Death of Elizabeth Gunning, 5th Duchess
1794	Concern about the condition of the mausoleum, and plans to demolish and rebuild
1796	Renovation completed
1806	Death of John 5th Duke
1818	Repairs to the church and the churchyard enclosed by a wall.
1824	Death of Elizabeth Sutherland-Leveson-Gower 8th Duchess
1828	Death of Joan Glassel 7th Duchess David Napier buys land in Kilmun & starts building & developing tourist business, building the pier and hotel at Kilmun.
1837	Death of John Henry Glassel, son of 7th Duchess Napier builds new road to Loch Eck
1838	Explosion at Glenlean Powdermill shakes village
1839	Death of George William 6th Duke
1841	Church demolished and new building erected by architect Thomas Burns
1847	Death of John Douglas Edward Henry 7th Duke
1852	Kilmun & Strone sailing regatta
1856	February gale smashes seven boats sheltering in the loch onto the Kilmun shore
1865	February – the Kilmun Hermit died
1874	Death of Anne, 7th Duchess
1878	Death of Elizabeth Georgiana 8th Duchess

1891	Lord Lorne begins planning renovation of the mausoleum
1895	First of the Stephen Adam stained glass windows installed in the church
1893	Extensive renovations of the burial place stop with plans to further improve outlined by Lorne. This stage is never actioned.
1895	Publication of " The Saviour in the Newer Light " by Rev. Alex Robinson, which sparked the "Kilmun Heresy Case"
1898	Renovation of the church building and cleaning-up of the mediaeval tower
1899	Church reopened
1900	Death of George Douglas 8th Duke
1901	Elizabeth Blackwell takes her first holiday at the Kilmun Hotel
1910	Elizabeth Blackwell buried at Kilmun
1912	Rev. A. Wallace MacKinlay gifted a new window in remembrance of Duncan McColl, Church Treasurer, and Robert Wilson, the Session Clerk.
1913	Death of John George Edward Henry 9th Duke
1923	War memorial unveiled in March
1949	Death of Niall Dairmid 10th Duke